

E-YAH, COLUMBIA. Away up in the air—as he leads the students of the Columbia University in an ovation for the football squad. P. W. Gallico is the name

GERMANTOWN HIGH SCHOOL WINS. Ebbie Cornog, captain of the Germantown team, on the left. His victorious team scored but one touchdown against the Camden High School. The play is shown in the above photograph. At the right is Captain Donovan Cragin of the Camden team. The game was played yesterday afternoon at Houston Field

COUNTRY FAIR. The annual event held at the St. Francis Country House, Darby, opened yesterday and will continue today. No Mary and the lamb here. This lamb is being cared for by Miss Elizabeth Doyle. Mrs. Katharine Mariner and Mrs. Joseph Magin are getting their booth decorated

DADDY'S BATTING .500. Catcher O'Neil of the Cleveland team, with his daughter, at Ebbets ball field, Brooklyn. O'Neil is leading the hitters in the world series games

LANSDOWNE DANCER. Miss Ednell Malm, one of the dancers at the Lansdowne fete, yesterday

OSTRICH EGGS VS. HEN EGGS. Ostrich eggs are growing in favor in Pasadena, California. Miss Helen Jerome Eddy shows you the difference in size

WEIGHING THE BABY. This scene is enacted daily in the clinic of the Babies' Hospital, Ninth and Pine Streets

NEW JERSEY FOOTBALL. E. Tallen, captain of the Haddon Heights High School football team (left). A Collingswood High School player is seen running with the ball. The latter school had the ball most of the time, winning by a score of 56-0. The winning captain, J. Warren, of Collingswood, at the right

MISS EVALYN T. CAVIN, 1037 Walnut street, who discusses keeping children in the home in an interview on the editorial page

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

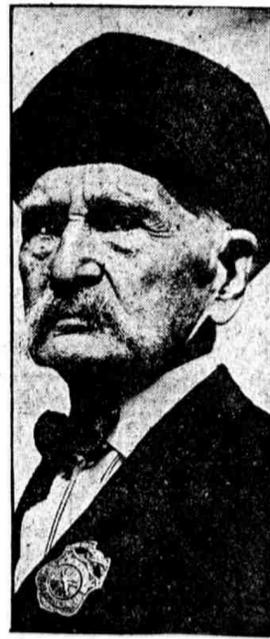

JOHN SNIVELY, 2114 Venango street, wiring an electric sign at the Brilliant Manufacturing Co., 1035 Ridge avenue

STROLLING AT VERSAILLES, FRANCE. At the left, M. Millerand, president of France, and at the right, his daughter, Jeanne Millerand

RETIRED HOBBO. After covering 710,000 miles as a "knight of the road," Jeff Davis visited the White House. He will "retire" to his home in Cincinnati

SIXTY-SIX YEARS A FIREMAN. T. M. Burgett, of Galion, Ohio, has been a fireman since he was fifteen years old

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARIE MCCARTHY 5913 Market street Philadelphia